Typewriting

4. Nitwit Department. One of the subjects covered in the Clerical Orientation course is Regulatory Issuances. The three issuances—Regulations, Notices, and Handbooks—are carefully explained and their differences pointed out. In order to make them easily distinguishable, samples of each are shown to the students. Prior to the scheduled written test in the course, a careful review is made of all the subjects covered. Again, the three issuances are mentioned and the distinctions indicated. One girl this week gave the following answer to the question in regard to the three types of issuances: "Health, Life, and Old Age."
